Florida HIV/AIDS Minority Network Liaisons

The Florida HIV/AIDS Minority Network is an initiative of the Bureau of HIV/AIDS established to facilitate the development and build the capacity of minority Prevention-based organizations and AIDS service organizations through peer-based support, mentoring and exchange of information among members. Expert technical assistance in administrative, programmatic and fiscal management is available to its members. The primary role of the Minority Network Liaisons is to assess and report on the needs of minority Prevention-based organizations in their respective areas and assist in planning of capacity-building workshops to address those needs.
