

Edward A. Tellechea, Esq. graduated with honors from the Florida State University College of Law in 1990. He is currently a member of The Florida Bar and The Utah Bar. He is married, with two children and lives in Tallahassee, Florida

In the Martindale-Hubbell attorney directory and rating service, Mr. Tellechea earned the highest level of professional excellence, a rating of AV from his peers. The letter “A” represents the highest recommendations and the “V” represents the highest legal ability. He has also been rated as a top government attorney in Florida Trend’s Legal Elite for 2007. This “Elite” rating is awarded to attorneys who have earned the qualities of trust and confidence from his peers in business and legal practice.

Mr. Tellechea joined the Attorney Generals office in 1995. He initially served as legal counsel for the Division of Victim Services and Criminal Justice Program. In 1997, he began representing health care practitioner regulatory boards with the Administrative Law Section of the Attorney Generals office. During his tenure with the Attorney Generals office, he has served under Attorney Generals Bob Butterworth, Charlie Crist and Bill McCollum.

Mr. Tellechea currently holds the title of Senior Assistant Attorney General and Deputy Bureau Chief. He represents the Board of Medicine, Anesthesiologist Assistant Council, Pilot Rate Review Board and the Florida Elections Commission. Prior to serving at the Attorney Generals office, Mr. Tellechea practiced law at The Florida Bar where he represented The Florida Bar Ethics Committee and the Standing Committee on Lawyer Advertising for four years.